Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Five Frank J. Effenberger's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Effenberger devoted more than 38 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a pilot and leader in aviation, including service in Vietnam and many state missions; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Chief Warrant Officer Effenberger continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Chief Warrant Officer Five Frank J. Effenberger for more than 38 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 10, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER FIVE
FRANK J. EFFENBERGER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
